Please indicate the reasons you are interested in serving and any specific skills or experience you believe support your application.*

I am interested in serving my community on this board. So I can be a positive part of something going on within our community. As well as being a part of a board that has the potential to bring new and needed establishments to our community. I have served our great nation for 22 1/2 years in the Iowa National Guard. Which I am recently retired from honorable. I'm the army I have obtained many relevant skills an attributes. To mansion a few loyalty duty respect selfless

Other civic experience:

22 1/2 years in the Iowa Army National Guard in which most of those years were served here in our community. In the 3654th Maintenance Company. I have also spent a few years on Oskaloosa volunteer fire department in the past.

Thank you for your application.

Appointments will be consistent with Iowa House File 243 for Gender Balancing of boards, committees, and commissions.
