The main question that came up regarding this painting was what type of paint would be used for the mural. Diane Ottoson, Secretary of FACE, was on the call and she was not aware of what paint was being used but was willing to take any recommendations the commission had. The commission requested asking Sherwin Williams which paint would be best on the brick and then the Sub-Committee could review it. There was some discussion on what some of the images represented for the mural. Diane Ottoson mentioned they are considering placing a signage near the mural that explains who is pictured in it. Lockwood made a motion to approve the mural as presented, seconded by Benson. All ayes, motion carried unanimously.

Discuss the Preserve Iowa Summit event for 2021.

Flahive wanted to remind the commission about the Preserve Iowa Summit event that will be help virtually in June. Registration for this event is now open and commission members are encouraged to let Flahive know if they are interested in attending.
