NOTICE OF TESTING FOR POLICE SERGEANT

THE OSKALOOSA CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION WILL BE HOLDING COMPETITIVE PROMOTIONAL EXAMINATIONS FOR A CERTIFIED LIST OF QUALIFIED CANDIDATES ELIGIBLE FOR PROMOTION TO THE POSITION OF POLICE SERGEANT.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for examination, Officers must have two (2) years of service from most recent hire date, or four (4) years law enforcement experience including time from most recent hire date.

To be eligible for promotion after certification, an Officer must have completed three (3) years of service from most recent hire date, or have five (5) years law enforcement experience. Code of Iowa 400-9(5)b.

TESTING ELEMENTS AND VALUES

The written examination (Multiple-Choice Exam) will commence at 9:00 a.m. on August 6th, 2021. The total process will include a Written Examination and an Oral Interview with a panel of up to five (5) people, at the discretion of the Chief of Police.

Points will be awarded as follows:

45% of scoring from written examination,

55% from the oral interview.

A minimum score of 70% on each portion is required to pass.

Veteran's points will be awarded as prescribed in Chapter 400 of the Iowa Code. These points may be used for positioning on the certification list but will not determine a candidate's passing or failing. Claims for veteran's points need to be registered with the Administrative Assistant to the Chief on or before the testing date.

CLOSING DATE

Application closing date will be July 2nd, 2021. You must register with the City Clerk on or before 4:00 p.m. on this date to participate in this testing procedure.
