6. Next was update on waste water operations. Nick Jones asked about the finals pump at the NE plant and what was happening with that particular unit. Chad went on to explain that the local electricians that we use were able to pull new wire in the conduit and we didn’t need to lay new conduit. This brought the finals pump back into operation. Nick went on to ask if there were areas of the plants that were Class 1 rated for explosion. Chad explained that each plant had areas that were Class 1 Division 1 rated and staff had 4 gas monitors for these areas and there was also special consideration taken for the recent Facility Plan and Short Term Improvements for these areas. There was a brief update on the bids received for the Short Term Improvements and some of the work that will be done as a result. There was no action taken by the Board.

7. General Manager’s update was next on the agenda. Chad provided information to the Board regarding operations for the water side and asked if there were any questions. Brad asked if the new Water Audit Software would change how the utility looked at water loss or if it was a way to get away from what was currently being used. Chad explained that this software was something new that AWWA and the DNR were looking to get more utilities using to help determine how effectively they were tracking water.
He also discussed more of the finite details of the grading system that is incorporated and what he had seen so far with the input he had made. There was no action taken by the Board of Trustees.

8. The last agenda item was updates from the members of the Board of Trustees. There was a question about the possible leak on South 3rd and 1st Avenue East which Chad said was going to be looked at later in the week to see if it was a water main break or a service line leak. There was no action by the Board on this issue either.

There being no further items to discuss, it was moved by Brandon Strasser and second by Nick Jones to adjourn. Ayes; Hodges, Jones, Strasser and Tacke. Nays; none. Absent; Carter. Motion passed.
